

Southbay Storytellers and Listeners – 2008

Second Sunday of each month, all year 7 to 9 pm	Southbay Storytellers and Listeners – invites you to Monthly Story Swaps in the Garden Room [room 3 – nearest the stoplight] of the Los Alto United Methodist Church, 655 Magdalena [at Foothill Expressway] Los Altos.
January 27 1 pm to 5 pm	Palo Alto Children's Library – invites you to their annual free Storytelling Festival suitable for ages 4 and up. Back after 2 years of reconstruction at 1276 Harriet St.
February 9 9 am to 4 pm	Winter Workshop & Swap – A day to develop our craft and share stories. $30.00 [sliding scale to $0] includes lunch. At Palo Alto Friends Meetinghouse, 957 Colorado Ave. Two swaps and workshops on movement, humor, and telling for pre-schoolers.
March 15 1 pm to 4 pm	Sunnyvale Library – invites you to their 18 th annual free Storytelling Festival for children in kindergarten and older and adults at 665 W. Olive Ave.
May 17 & 18	Bay Area Storytelling Festival – Two delightful days of storytelling at the Kennedy Grove Park in the East Bay Hills.
July 25 – 27	Big Basin State Park Story Festival – Local tellers provide stories for junior ranger programs and evening campfires. Camp out and join in.
October 25 evening	Ghost Stories – At Big Basin State Park campfire. Learn about the Missing Arm of William Waddell.
November 22 7 pm	Tellabration™ 2008 – Our major annual concert. Location TBA

Contact: Joy Swift 650-494-1383 joy.swift@sbcglobal.net – Tom & Sandy Farley 650-366-1818 farley@spont.com
Or see our website at <http://www.southbaystorytellers.com>